

4th International Day of Zero Tolerance

for FEMALE
GENITAL
CUTTING

Tuesday | February 6, 2007
8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m

BROADENING THE BASE, RENEWING THE AGENDA

The USAID Bureau for Global Health and Population Reference Bureau (PRB) invite you to attend a day-long symposium to commemorate the 4th anniversary of Zero Tolerance Day for Female Genital Cutting. The seminar will feature three panels:

- ▶ Promising Practices: Evaluation Methods and Results
- ▶ Change Makers
- ▶ Widening the Circle: The Next Ten Years

Highlights to include:

- ▶ Latest research and evaluation results and their practical applications;
- ▶ Opinion leaders' and advocates' reports from the field, including work with religious leaders, ministries, and the news media; and
- ▶ Ideas for strengthening the links between FGC and other sectors.

Academy Hall

Academy for Educational Development
1825 Connecticut Avenue, NW, 8th floor, Washington, DC 20009

Lunch will be served.

To register please contact Emily Poster (eposter@prb.org) by January 26.
Space is limited so early registration is encouraged.

For more details, visit www.prb.org.

