

The Population Association of America

invites you to a
Congressional Briefing

Small Towns/Big Changes:

The Shifting Demographics of Rural America

Moderated by:

Dr. Robert A. Moffitt

Johns Hopkins University

Panelists:

Dr. Daniel Lichter

Cornell University

Dr. Jennifer Van Hook

Pennsylvania State University

Dr. Meredith A. Kleykamp

University of Maryland

Dr. Wesley James

University of Memphis

Cosponsors:

American Sociological Association

American Statistical Association

Association of Population Centers

Association of Public Data Users

Consortium of Social Science Associations

Council of Professional Associations

on Federal Statistics

Population Reference Bureau

Rural Sociological Society

Monday, April 3

12:00 to 1:15 p.m.

Room 2045, Rayburn
House Office Building

Boxed lunches will be served

RSVP: crdfellow1@dc-crd.com

The Population Association of America is pleased to sponsor this expert panel discussion regarding changing demographic & socio-economic characteristics of rural America. The speakers will address different facets of rural life in America, including the impact of immigration on rural communities, the needs of veterans, and rural health and mortality trends.

This is a widely attended event relevant to official duties.