

PRB

at the 2019
PAA
ANNUAL MEETING

@PRBdata
#paa2019
#PRBatPAA

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10

1:30–5:00 p.m.

Census and ACS in the Classroom: A “Hands-On” Workshop for College Professors

William H. Frey, Social Science Data Analysis Network (SSDAN) (organizer)

Mark Mather, associate vice president, U.S. Programs (co-presenter)

John P. DeWitt, SSDAN (co-presenter)

Andrew Beveridge, Queens College and the Graduate Center, CUNY (co-presenter)

6:00–9:00 p.m.

Welcome Mixer/Exhibit Hall

Please come to the PRB Booth (23 & 24) to pick up the latest swag and take a picture with our PAA photo frame!

THURSDAY, APRIL 11

7:30–9:30 a.m.

Jo’s Coffee (4160, 242 W. 2nd St)

Policy Fellow Meet-Up

Early bird coffee meet-up for PRB Policy Fellow Alumni. Come by to network and share your experiences!

10:00–11:30 a.m. Poster Session 2

Griffin Hall

Family Planning Equity Among Youth: Where Are We Now?

Elizabeth Leahy Madsen, program director, International Programs

Charlotte Greenbaum, policy analyst, International Programs

Making Sense of Disparate Data on Noncommunicable Disease Risk Behaviors Among Youth in Low- and Middle-Income Countries

Toshiko Kaneda, senior research associate, International Programs

12:30–2:00 p.m. Poster Session 3

Mapping Children’s Exposure to Drug Overdose Deaths

Mark S. Mather, associate vice president, U.S. Programs

Beth Jarosz, senior research associate, U.S. Programs

Marissa Slowey, University of Chicago

7:00–9:00 p.m.

Evidence to Action: Topping Up Policy Communication Skills and Sharing Successes Across Four Cohorts of PRB NIH Fellows

(Invitation Only)

FRIDAY, APRIL 12

8:15–9:45 a.m. Session 123

Lone Star A (Level 3)

Visualizing the Effects on Children of Changes in the Public Charge Rule

Beth Jarosz, senior research associate, U.S. Programs

Mark S. Mather, associate vice president, U.S. Programs